

Travellers mad dash through Malaysia

TEAMS competing for "The World's Greatest Travellers" crown headed from Penang to Singapore recently before travelling to the Indian sub-continent for their final mad dash across Europe.

Tagged "The Olympics of Travel competitions", the teams unravelled the mysteries in strange lands. The fourth edition of the international competition is tight, so everyone is really motivated to perform well," he said.

After their short stint in Malaysia, the teams begin the next part of the annual travel adventure event which brings them to the finish line in Toronto for the official crowning of "The World's Greatest Travellers" on May 3.

Teams competing in The Global Scavenger Hunt are doing their bit for a good cause by logging over one million kilometres to help achieve a US$1 million (RM3.175 million) goal for Doctors Without Borders, Unicef, Care and Kiva, among other global charities.

"All our teams must shed their pre-programmed perceptions and learn to trust strangers in strange lands. The fourth edition of the international competition is tight, so everyone is really motivated to perform well," he said.

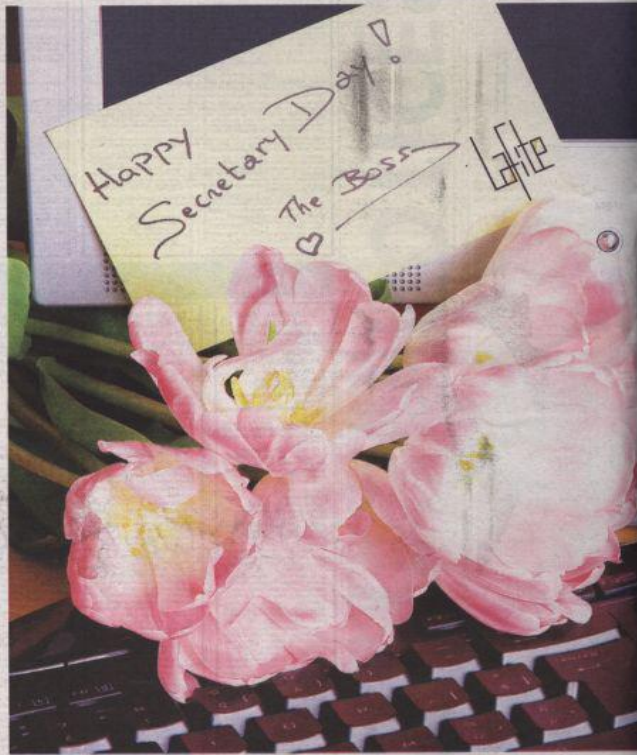

After their short stint in Malaysia, the teams begin the next part of the annual travel adventure event which brings them to the finish line in Toronto for the official crowning of "The World's Greatest Travellers" on May 3.

Teams competing in The Global Scavenger Hunt are doing their bit for a good cause by logging over one million kilometres to help achieve a US$1 million (RM3.175 million) goal for Doctors Without Borders, Unicef, Care and Kiva, among other global charities.

(From left) Mond Mecja (director of sales for Le Meridien KL), William Chalmers (organiser), Pamela Finmark (organiser) and Ashley Hansen (director of sales and marketing for Le Meridien KL).

Luncheon treat for Girl Fridays

Bargain books

BOOKXCESS is celebrating World Book Day with big discounts on their already unbeatable prices!

On April 23 and 24, spend RM200 or more and you will get a RM20 voucher. On top of that, there will be a 10 per cent storewide discount. If you're already a member, this discount is on top of your usual member discount.

To become a member, spend RM50 or more in a single receipt instead of the usual RM100.

World Book Day started as a humble tradition in Catalonia, Spain, in 1923 where people honoured literature by